Preamble

Asian Taekwondo Union (hereinafter referred to as the “ATU”) is a non-profit making organization which is subject to the laws and regulations of the country on whose territory its head office is located. ATU is a Continental Union (hereinafter referred to as the “CU”) of World Taekwondo (hereinafter referred to as the “World Taekwondo” or “WT”). Member National Associations (hereinafter referred to as the “MNAs”) shall be formed under the auspices of the WT Statutes and in conformity with the principles thereof.

The functioning of ATU is regulated by these Statutes.

PART I: GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 Name, Legal Status, Recognition and Headquarters

- 1.1. Name and Legal Status: ATU is a CU of World Taekwondo established as an international non-governmental not-for-profit organization chartered within Asia to promote the interests of WT. ATU shall possess legal personality as approved by two-thirds (2/3) of the Council and have the capacity to contract, to acquire and dispose of real property, and to institute and defend in legal proceedings.
- 1.2. Recognition: ATU is recognized by WT as the entity tasked to support WT's activities in the continent in compliance with these Statutes and WT goals. ATU shall comply with WT's interests and initiatives.
- 1.3. Headquarters: The ATU Headquarters at any given time shall be located as decided by the ATU Management and reported to the GA according to the ATU Statutes. The ATU management will consider the location where the legal entity can best accommodate the legal and financial operations of ATU. Location of the headquarters shall be in a nation with optimal legal, economic and tax policies as approved by two-thirds (2/3) of the Council._

Article 2 Objectives, Principles, Autonomy, Practices and Cooperation

- 2.1. Objective: The mandate of ATU is to promote the practice of Taekwondo in accordance with the objectives envisioned by WT for the continent. In coordination with WT, the objectives of ATU are the following:
 - 2.1.1. Assist WT in managing the practice of Taekwondo as an Olympic, Paralympic and virtual sport, all other kind of Taekwondo practice, in all countries and areas within the continent;
 - 2.1.2. Publish and abide by the WT's rules, policies and practices governing membership in order to protect the integrity of Taekwondo and within these parameters grow and develop the practice of Taekwondo as an Olympic and Paralympic sport in the continent's nations and territories;
 - 2.1.3. Strengthen the bonds between MNAs, notify WT of any disputes between MNAs, and resolve such disputes if WT determines they fall outside its purview;
 - 2.1.4. Encourage and support MNAs to actively participate in WT and the ATU meetings and events; keeping WT apprised on all relevant matters within the continent;
 - 2.1.5. Organize, conduct and establish Taekwondo events and championships according to WT standards and ensure other regional events held by MNAs and/or recognized stakeholders meet the appropriate WT standards;
 - 2.1.6. Establish Para Taekwondo as part of the ATU operations, including the organization of the ATU Para Taekwondo Championships;

- 2.1.7. Promote, expand, and improve the practice of Taekwondo throughout the continent in light of its educational, cultural, humanitarian and sport values (the “Taekwondo Movement”);
 - 2.1.8. Support and encourage the development of Taekwondo as a Sport for All;
 - 2.1.9. Encourage peace and cooperation through participation in sports;
 - 2.1.10. Engage in appropriate commercial activities that give direct benefits to the sport and ensure the sustainable development of ATU, so long as these activities do not conflict with the commercial activities of WT;
 - 2.1.11. Operate development and recognition programs that support programs established by WT;
 - 2.1.12. Strengthen and uphold WT’s Objectives and Principles by taking necessary measures to advance the interests of Taekwondo;
 - 2.1.13. Implement and be part of the Global Membership System (“GMS”) in accordance with the GMS Bylaws.
 - 2.1.14. Integrate and promote Virtual Taekwondo and, where appropriate, electronic sports as tools for digital engagement with the youth and inclusion for all ages and demographics.
- 2.2. Principles: The general and fundamental principles of WT’s Statutes, rules, and regulations as amended from time to time, apply, and no provision of these ATU Statutes shall conflict with or undermine those principles. ATU and MNAs, through their membership in WT, are committed to the following principles:
- 2.2.1. Sport for All: Taekwondo is a sport for people of all ages and abilities, and a sport for all levels, recreational, competitive, and elite.
 - 2.2.2. Fair Play: ATU and MNAs shall take reasonable measures to ensure that competitions and participants (athletes, officials, and administrators) respect “fair play” and engage in the highest degree of sportsmanship and integrity.
 - 2.2.3. Harassment-Free Sport: Participants in Taekwondo at any level have a right to compete, work and operate in a harassment-free environment. ATU and MNAs shall take reasonable care to ensure there is no harassment, whether physical, psychological, or otherwise.
 - 2.2.4. Gender Equality: Taekwondo strives for equal representation of men and women. ATU and MNAs support the active participation of women in Taekwondo at all levels and promotes their representation in the ATU, competitions, and programs throughout the region. ATU aims to achieve equal gender representation on its Council and Committees by 2029.
 - 2.2.5. Sustainable Development: ATU and MNAs shall take a responsible approach to safeguarding the environment and managing resources in a sustainable way through its practices in hosting events and managing its operations.

2.2.6. Non-Discrimination and Ethics: ATU and MNAs shall not allow any inappropriate form of discrimination to affect its decisions or actions, be it discrimination based on race, color, creed, ethnic origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, physical attributes, language, religion, disability, national, political, socio-economic status, or athletic ability, birth or other status. Anyone engaging with ATU and/or MNAs in any capacity or participating in their activities must act in a non-discriminatory and ethical manner.

2.2.7. Athlete-centered Approach: Recognizing athletes as the heart of our sport. ATU is committed to an athlete-centered approach that prioritizes the well-being, development, and empowerment of athletes at every level, and ensuring their voices are heard and respected.

2.3. Autonomy:

2.3.1. As required by Article 25 of the Olympic Charter, WT maintains its independence and autonomy in the administration of the sport of Taekwondo. In accordance with this, MNAs and CUs must manage their internal affairs with total independence from undue influence, such as political, religious or financial pressure, which may infringe their commitment to conform to the WT Statutes and ensure that no third party interferes in their operations.

2.3.2. Any external form of interference, undue influence, or attempt shall be reported to WT.

2.3.3. The ATU's governing documents must make provision for an election or internal appointment system that ensures compliance with this section by ATU.

2.3.4. WT may take appropriate action against ATU if not in compliance with this Section.

2.4. Best Practices: ATU shall integrate WT's best practices with regards to the governance and administration of the sport of Taekwondo ("Best Practices"). These include the following:

- Policy and sanctions against self-dealing by the ATU Officials and Management
- Transparency of accounting and accurate bookkeeping
- Social responsibility policies

2.4.1. ATU update and align its governing documents and other materials with WT's best practices, as amended from time to time, such as: Anti-Doping Rules, Anti-Discrimination Policy, Bylaws on Betting and Anti-Corruption, Conflict of Interest Policy, Disciplinary Actions and Appeals Code, Code of Ethics, Election Bylaws, Finance Rules, Medical Code and Safety Rules, Safeguarding Policy, and Sustainability Policy, which are published on the WT Website.

2.5. Cooperation: ATU shall respect WT's relations with its independent affiliated organizations and assist in related operations as required by WT.

Article 3 Official and Operating Languages

3.1. Official Language(s): The official languages of ATU are English and Korean.

- 3.1.1. The ATU Statutes and WT Competition Rules: ATU Statutes, the WT Competition Rules, and Interpretations or any amendments thereto shall be published in English. In case of a conflict among different versions, the English version shall prevail.
- 3.2. Operating Language: The operating language of ATU, including its Secretariat, the Council, the General Assembly, and Committees, is English.
- 3.2.1. Governing Documents: Unless otherwise specified herein, all ATU rules, regulations, and official guidelines, shall be published in English.
- 3.2.2. Proceedings: ATU meetings, minutes, correspondence, seminars, trainings, and announcements shall be conducted and published in English.
- 3.2.2.1. MNAs are responsible for translating the aforementioned materials into the language of their country. MNAs have the right to speak or write in their own language, but the content must be translated into English and provided by the MNAs.

PART II: ORGANIZATION

Article 4 Structure

- 4.1. The structure and administration of ATU shall ensure: (i) participation, (ii) transparency, and (iii) compliance with the WT goals and directives.
- 4.2. ATU shall be governed by its:
- General Assembly (hereinafter from time to time referred to as “the GA”. See Article 5).
 - Council (hereinafter from time to time referred to as “the Council”. See Article 6); and
 - Management (hereinafter from time to time referred to as “the Management”. See Article 7)
- 4.2.1. The Management shall be comprised of the following:
- The President (Refer to Article 7.2)
 - Secretary General (Refer to Article 7.3)
 - Secretariat (Refer to Article 7.4).
- 4.3. Committees:
- 4.3.1. ATU may constitute Committees to advise, support and assist in performance of the functions of the Management. Any Committee constituted by ATU shall coordinate its functions with a corresponding committee of WT when deemed necessary by WT. See Addendum 1 for the list of Standing Committees.
- 4.3.1.1. Terms of Reference (TOR): TOR for each Committee, whether standing or ad-hoc, shall be provided separately and published on the ATU website. The Council or the President may entrust each Committee with execution of the matters under its jurisdiction and/or responsibility. The Management shall assign a liaison to each Committee.

- 4.3.1.2. Meeting and Reporting: Committees shall meet at least once per quarter and shall submit a progress report to the Management following each meeting. Committees shall also submit an annual report to the GA. Reports shall be published unless determined confidential by the Committee and Management. Meeting can be conducted either electronically or in person. The Committee Chairs may attend Council meetings and deliver reports to the Council and the GA.
- 4.3.1.3. Composition and Term: Committee members shall be selected based on published qualifications aligned with each Committee's mandate. Composition and Term shall be determined by the needs and circumstances of ATU.
- 4.3.2. Ad-Hoc Committees: The President may from time to time form special purpose ad-hoc committees. The Terms of Reference and resulting reports from the ad-hoc committees shall be presented to the Council.

Article 5 General Assembly

- 5.1. The GA is the general meeting of the Council and the representatives of MNAs. It is ATU's supreme decision-making body and its decisions are final.
 - 5.1.1. Ordinary General Assembly (the "OGA"): Ordinary GA shall be held every year at the same location where Asian Taekwondo Championships or Asian Junior and Cadet Taekwondo Championships is to be held.
 - 5.1.1.1. Calling Notice: The OGA Calling Notice shall be sent at least two (2) months before the date fixed for such meetings. The date, time, format, and location, along with the business to be transacted, shall be included in the OGA Calling Notice, published on the ATU website, and sent to the Council and MNAs. Accidental omission to give notice to any of the above shall not invalidate the proceedings of any OGA.
 - 5.1.1.2. Agenda and Meeting Book: The draft Agenda for the OGA shall be sent to the Council and MNAs no later than one (1) month before the OGA. The Agenda and Meeting Book for the GA shall be sent to the Council and MNAs no later than two (2) weeks before the OGA.
 - 5.1.1.3. Matters that are not included in the final agenda of the OGA shall not be deliberated without the consent of two-thirds (2/3) of eligible voters.
 - 5.1.2. Extraordinary General Assembly (the "EGA"): The EGA may be convened whenever is deemed necessary by the President; or within three (3) months following the request of more than one-third (1/3) of the Council Members with clear reasons for the summons; or within three (3) months following the request of more than one-third (1/3) of Level I MNAs with clear reasons for the summons. The date, place, and agenda of the EGA shall be designated by the President.
 - 5.1.2.1. Calling Notice: The EGA Calling Notice shall be sent at least one (1) month before the date fixed for such meetings. The date, time, format, and location, along with the business to be transacted, shall be included in the EGA Calling Notice, published on the ATU website, and sent to the Council and MNAs. Accidental omission to give notice to any of the above shall not invalidate the proceedings of any EGA.

- 5.1.2.2. Agenda and Documents: The Agenda and Meeting Book of the EGA shall be sent to the Council and MNAs by no later than two (2) weeks before the EGA.
- 5.1.2.3. Matters not included in the EGA agenda shall not be deliberated without the consent of two-thirds (2/3) of eligible voters.
- 5.2. Quorum: A quorum required for the GA shall consist of no less than one-third (1/3) of eligible voters (voting Council Members and Level I MNAs) participating in the meeting.
- 5.3. Voting at the GA: Unless otherwise provided herein, Council Members and voting MNA representatives are entitled to vote. Resolutions and other decisions are passed by a simple majority of eligible voters present in the meeting. Abstentions and blank or spoiled votes are counted for quorum but are not taken into consideration in the calculation of the required majority. The Chair shall not vote except in the case of a tie. Decisions come into effect immediately unless otherwise decided by the GA.
 - 5.3.1. Except for election, which shall be by secret ballot, voting for items at the GA shall be conducted by open ballot in general. However, if one or more eligible voter request for a secret ballot, the GA shall vote on this matter, and a simple majority shall decide.
- 5.4. Chair: The President shall act as Chair at the GA except for Elections, which are chaired by the Chair of the ad-hoc Election Committee. The Chair is responsible for presiding over the GA and has the authority to take reasonably necessary measures to stop any disruptive conduct obstructing the efficient administration of the GA to ensure the rights of all members are respected.
 - 5.4.1. If the President is unable to attend, the attending Vice President who received the most votes when elected shall preside over the GA.
- 5.5. The business of the GA shall be:
 - 5.5.1. approve the minutes of the previous GA;
 - 5.5.2. receive the report of the Council;
 - 5.5.3. approve the annual Financial Statements and Independent Auditor's Report;
 - 5.5.4. approve the budget prepared by the Management under supervision of the Finance Committee;
 - 5.5.5. approve the operation report and operation plans of the Management as approved by the Council;
 - 5.5.6. approve proposals for amendments to the Statutes in line with WT;
 - 5.5.7. elect officials as described herein;

- 5.5.8. ratify expulsions of MNAs as decided by the Council with prior approval of WT;
- 5.5.9. discuss other matters of importance;
- 5.5.10. No decision of the GA shall contravene with those of WT.
- 5.6. Except for items listed above, the GA may refer matters under its jurisdiction and/or responsibility to the Management or the Council.
- 5.7. MNA Representation:
- 5.7.1. Representation:
- 5.7.1.1. Each Level I MNA shall be entitled to appoint not more than two (2) delegates (preferably 1 male and 1 female) to every GA. Only one of the representatives shall be allowed to speak and to cast a vote (the "Voting Representative."). If the President has eligibility to vote under another capacity (i.e., as a member of the ATU Council), then he or she may assign the right to act as Voting Representative to another individual within the MNA; such assignment is to be by proxy letter presented to the Management.
- 5.7.1.2. Each Level II, Level III, Provisional and Associate MNA shall be entitled to appoint one (1) delegate to every GA and to speak but shall not have voting rights.
- 5.7.2. It is expected that the MNA Representative will be the President of the MNA. If a Level I MNA President is unable to attend, then he or she may assign the right to act as Voting Representative to another individual within the MNA; such assignment is to be by proxy letter presented to the Management.
- 5.7.3. Proxy Representatives must belong to the MNA that they represent and be appointed by the appropriate body of that MNA. In case of any dispute, the onus is on the Representative to prove the position in the MNA concerned to the satisfaction of the Management.
- 5.8. Elections of Officials: An electoral GA shall elect the following officials: (i) the President, (ii) the Vice Presidents, (iii) the Council Members, and (iv) an Auditor. The elections shall be held within six months before the WT election. ATU may request to organize its election in conjunction with the WT election but one (1) day before.
- 5.8.1. President: There shall be one (1) President elected by the GA. If the elected President of ATU holds another position in a MNA, that person must resign the other position(s) within one month of being elected as President.
- 5.8.2. Elected Vice Presidents: There shall be three (3) Vice Presidents elected at the GA, including the highest voted female Council member, who shall be promoted to Vice President. The two (2) elected Vice Presidents other than the highest voted female Council member shall be from a different MNA.
- 5.8.3. Elected Council Members: The GA shall elect eight (8) Council Members.

- 5.8.3.1. Promotion of Female Council Member to Vice President: The highest voted female Council Member shall be promoted to Vice President. In terms of term limit, hers shall count as a Council Member.
- 5.8.4. Auditor: One (1) Auditor shall be elected at the GA. The Auditor shall be invited to the Council Meetings and the General Assembly but shall not be included as a member of the Council, and therefore shall not count toward quorum or have voting rights.
- 5.8.5. Age limit for Elected Officials: The age limit to be a candidate for elected Council Member is less than seventy (70) years old on the day of election, except for members incumbent prior to the 2021 elections, for whom the age limit for candidacy is eighty (80). An official who has reached the age limit is not eligible to run.
- 5.8.6. Term of office for Elected Officials: The Term of Office for Elected Officials is four (4) years. For the purpose of this rule, a year means the period between two successive OGAs. Terms begin/end at the end of Asian Taekwondo Championships or Asian Junior and Cadet Taekwondo Championships held on the occasion of the GA in which elections take place.
- 5.8.7. Term limits of Elected Officials: Individuals can be elected a maximum of three terms per position within the Council and are eligible for elections to other roles within the Council with the same term limit.
- 5.8.8. Nominations: A candidate to become an Elected Official must be nominated by a Level I MNA of which the candidate holds the nationality or residence. Current officials are eligible for reelection to their current position or to any other position within the Council without this MNA nomination.
- 5.8.8.1. Applications: Candidate applications including forms of Code of Conduct and MNA-nomination letter shall be circulated to MNAs and Council and published on the ATU Website by no later than three (3) months prior to the election date. Candidates must submit the completed applications to the Management by no later than sixty (60) days prior to the election date. The Secretariat will receive the applications and prepare a package to be reviewed by the ad-hoc Election Committee. Applications will not be accepted from the floor of the GA.
- 5.8.8.2. A candidate can only apply for one elected position within the Council at a time.
- 5.8.9. Election Committee: An ad-hoc Election Committee shall be established for the purpose of managing the election process at the GA and ensure its fairness. The ad-hoc Election Committee shall have three (3) or more members appointed by the President. The ad-hoc Election Committee shall be established no later than four (4) months before the scheduled election date. The ad-hoc Election Committee shall screen and approve the candidate application documents and shall ensure that elections are conducted in compliance with these Statutes and the Election Bylaws.
- 5.8.9.1. The ad-hoc Election Committee shall screen the applications and determine the list of qualified candidates. Issues regarding qualifications of a candidate shall be resolved by the ad-hoc Election Committee. The final list of the candidates as approved by the ad-hoc Election Committee shall be circulated to the Council and MNAs, and published on the ATU Website, by no later than thirty (30) days before the GA.

5.8.9.2. Matters concerning Council elections not covered by these Statutes are determined by the Election Bylaws.

5.8.10. Challenge of Elections: In the event that the validity of an election is challenged, the President shall be notified thereof and shall submit the case to the Council. If the Council determines the challenge to be valid, it must report this event to the GA where a re-examination, re-election, re-vote, or any other action as deemed necessary by the ATU Council shall occur. Only an eligible voter present at the GA may challenge the election.

5.9. E-voting: In the case of urgency, a resolution may be submitted to a vote by correspondence, including telefax or electronic mail, by the President to the Council and/or the GA. Voting eligibility requirements and effect of decisions remain the same. For e-voting quorum purposes proof of receipt by at least one-third (1/3) of eligible voters shall constitute quorum. Ballots returned that are abstentions or invalid (blank or spoiled) votes are counted for quorum but are not taken into consideration in the calculation of the required majority. Unreturned ballots are not calculated in determining the quorum and the required majority. A simple majority of valid ballots decides. Results shall be announced on the ATU Website and reported to the GA at its next meeting.

5.10. Minutes: Minutes of all meetings and other proceedings of the GA are established under the authority of the Management. The minutes shall be distributed to each MNA and WT no later than three (3) months after the GA.

Article 6 Council

6.1. Council Members shall attend Council and GA meetings and fulfill their duties and responsibilities as prescribed in these Statutes.

6.1.1. Only those people who demonstrate a high degree of ethics and integrity and pledge to observe the provisions of WT's Integrity Code without reservations are eligible to serve as Officials. Anyone with a criminal record in his/her country of residence or subjected to a disciplinary measure by a WT Sanctions Committee is not eligible if the offence is found by the Integrity Committee to be incompatible with their ability to fulfill their task.

6.1.2. Any member of the Council who fails to attend two (2) consecutive meetings without prior notice to the Management may be subject to removal as a Council Member.

6.1.3. If an elected official commits an action that undermines and/or disgraces ATU and/or WT, that official shall be removed by the Council upon recommendation of the Integrity Committee of ATU and/or the WT.

6.2. The Council shall consist of the following officials, some of whom are elected by the GA and others appointed by President.

6.3. President: Refer to Article 7.2

6.4. Vice Presidents:

6.4.1. The duties of the Vice Presidents shall be to assist the President and to fulfill missions delegated by the President.

6.4.2. Vice Presidents are composed of Two (2) elected by the GA
- One (1) highest voted female among the elected Council Members
- Two (2) appointed by the President

6.5. Secretary General: Refer to Article 7.3.

6.6. Treasurer: The Treasurer shall chair the Finance Committee.

6.7. Members: There shall be twelve (12) Council Members: nine (9) elected and three (3) appointed by the President.

6.7.1. Elected Members: Refer to Article 5.8.

6.7.2. Appointed Officials:

- Appointments: Appointments shall be made taking into consideration an individual's expertise, qualifications, and diversity to ensure fair and diverse representation within the Council.
- Term: The term of office for Appointed Officials shall be two (2) years or the end of the President's Term, whichever comes first. For the purpose of this rule, a year means the period between two successive OGAs.

- Removal: The President at his or her discretion is empowered to remove Appointed Officials.

6.7.3. Co-chairs of Athletes Committee: One (1) male and one (1) female co-chair who are elected by the Athletes Committee, which in turn is elected by active athletes.

6.8. Powers and Responsibilities: The Council shall have the power and responsibility to:

6.8.1. approve the minutes of the previous Council meeting;

6.8.2. approve the agenda of the GA;

6.8.3. approve the annual Financial Statements and Independent Auditor's Report to be presented to the GA;

6.8.4. approve the Budget prepared by the Management under supervision of the Finance Committee to be presented to the GA;

6.8.5. approve the Operating Report and Operation Plans of the Management to be presented to the GA;

6.8.6. approve proposals for amendments to the Statutes to be presented to the GA and previously approved by WT;

6.8.7. approve proposals for enactment or amendments to governing documents not covered in Article 5.5.6;

6.8.8. Select host cities of ATU promoted championships and events in accordance with WT requirements;

6.8.9. ratify expulsions proposed by the Management and previously approved by WT;

6.8.10. discuss and/or decide on the matters referred to the Council by the President.

6.8.11. decide on the delegation of matters under its jurisdictions to the President.

6.9. Fiduciary Duties: Council members participate in the Council as participate in the Council as representatives of ATU and not as delegates of their MNA, organization, region or territory. Council members are required to abide by ATU rules, act in good faith and with due care, and avoid conflicts of interests. Council members are required to know, understand, and abide by WT's Integrity Code and Conflicts of Interest Policy.

6.10. Meetings: Ordinary Council Meetings shall be called by the President before an OGA. Extraordinary Council Meetings shall be called by the President before an EGA, or whenever the President deems necessary.

- 6.10.1. Quorum: One-third (1/3) of the Council Members shall constitute a quorum of a meeting.
- 6.10.2. Chair: The President shall act as Chair at the Council. The Chair is responsible for presiding over the Council meeting and has the authority to take reasonably necessary measures to stop any disruptive conduct obstructing the efficient administration of the Council meeting to ensure the rights of all members are respected. If the President is unable to attend, the attending Vice President who received the most votes when elected shall preside over the Council meeting.
- 6.11. Decision-making and Effect: Any decision of the Council comes into effect immediately unless otherwise decided by the Council. Matters that are not included in the written agenda of the meeting shall not be deliberated without the consent of two-thirds (2/3) of eligible voters present.
- 6.12. Voting: Unless otherwise provided herein, Council Members excluding Treasurer are entitled to vote. Resolutions and other decisions are passed by simple majority with the presence of at least one-third (1/3) of eligible voters in the meeting.
- 6.12.1. Abstentions and invalid votes (blank or spoiled) count toward quorum but do not affect the majority calculation. The Chair votes only in the event of a tie.
- 6.12.2. Guidelines on special situations, such as host city selections, shall be provided separately.
- 6.12.3. Any decision of the Council comes into effect immediately unless otherwise decided by the Council.
- 6.13. E-Voting: In the case of urgency, a resolution may be submitted to a vote by correspondence, including telefax or electronic mail, by the President to the Council. Voting eligibility requirements and effect of decisions remain the same. For e-voting quorum purposes proof of receipt by a simple majority of eligible voters shall constitute quorum.
- 6.13.1. Ballots returned that are abstentions or invalid (blank or spoiled) votes are counted for quorum but are not taken into consideration in the calculation of the required majority. Unreturned ballots are not calculated in determining the quorum and the required majority. A simple majority of valid ballots decides. Results shall be announced on ATU Website and reported to the Council and GA at the next meetings.
- 6.14. Minutes: Minutes of all meetings and other proceedings of the Council meeting are established under the authority of the Secretary General. The minutes shall be distributed to each member no later than two (2) months after the Council meeting.
- 6.15. Replacement: If a Council Member resigns, is removed, or is otherwise unable to continue as an Official, the post shall not necessarily be filled by another individual of the same nationality. If an elected Council Member is to be replaced, unless otherwise provided for, the replacement shall be nominated by the President and approved by the Council. The term of office of a replacement Official will be the remaining period of his or her predecessor.
- 6.16. Honorary President: The President may appoint an Honorary President who has previously served as President of ATU, subject to confirmation by the GA. The Honorary President is not a member of the Council and shall not have voting rights. The honorary President may be invited to attend Ordinary Council meetings and the GA. The term of the Honorary President shall be four (4) years or the end of the current President's term, whichever comes first and may be renewed by the President upon confirmation of the GA.

- 6.17. Honorary Vice Presidents: The President may appoint Honorary Vice Presidents who have served as Vice Presidents of ATU or based on their exceptional contribution to ATU. The term, unless otherwise agreed, shall be two (2) years or the end of the President's term, whichever comes first. They may be invited to attend Ordinary Council meetings and the GA. They shall not have voting rights.

Article 7 Management

- 7.1. The Management shall be comprised of the following Officials who are tasked with conducting the day-to-day operations of ATU:

- President
- Secretary General
- Office of the Secretariat

- 7.2. President:

- 7.2.1. The duties of the President include the following:

7.2.1.1. Lead and represent ATU;

7.2.1.2. Promote the interest of the WT in the continent;

7.2.1.3. Concurrently lead the GA and the Council as Chair and preside over the meetings and other activities;

7.2.1.4. Designate official duties to the Council members on ad-hoc basis for the betterment of the development of the sport of Taekwondo and ATU operations;

7.2.1.5. Appoint chairs and members of Committees and establish and appoint chairs and members of the ad-hoc committees. Appointments to Committees shall take effect upon being reported to the Council, unless otherwise specified in these Statutes relevant rules;

7.2.1.6. Emergency measures In the case of disputes over matters not specified in these Statutes, or matters requiring urgent resolution between two OGAs, the ATU President may take emergency measures, subject to subsequent submission to and approval by the next ATU Council Meeting and OGA, provided those measures do not contravene WT;

7.2.1.7. Advisors: The President may appoint advisors or special assistants to seek advice on matters of importance pertaining to the overall development of ATU or special matters.

7.2.2. Succession: If the President resigns or is incapacitated and thus unable to fulfill the duties of his office, the Vice President who received the most votes when elected shall serve as Acting President.

7.2.2.1. The Acting President shall not have the power of appointment. If there is less than 12 months remaining in the term of his predecessor, the Acting President will serve out the remainder of the term. If more than 12 months remain in the predecessor's term, the Acting President must call for an interim presidential election, to be held in accordance with Section 5 at the next scheduled GA. The winner of this interim election shall serve out the remainder of the term of the incapacitated President.

7.3. Secretary General:

7.3.1. The duties of the Secretary General include the following:

7.3.1.1. Plan, execute, and manage Secretariat affairs related to ATU organization and other general matters of the Secretariat;

22.2.2. Review and Reporting: All non-substantive changes approved by the relevant committee must be documented and reported to the General Assembly at its next meeting.

22.2.3. Dispute Resolution: In the event of a dispute regarding whether a change is non-substantive, the matter shall be referred to the ATU Council for final determination.

Article 23 Interpretation

23.1. Interpretation Authority: The authority for settling any dispute arising out of the interpretation of these Statutes shall reside with the President, who shall seek the advice of the Council or appropriate Committees before asking a final decision. Such interpretations are final.

23.2. Any discrepancy between Statutes, bylaws, rules, regulations and/or codes and those of WT, the latter shall prevail.

Article 24 Enforcement

24.1. Adoption: These Statutes come into force immediately, except as otherwise indicated in these Statutes.

24.1.1. Council: The changes to the Council structure in 6.2, along with related amendments established during the e-vote in February 2025 shall come into effect upon the ATU elections at the 2025 Ordinary General Assembly.

24.1.2. The terms of incumbent Council Members, including ex-officio members' rights, shall remain valid until the elections at the 2025 Ordinary General Assembly, subject to the implementation of the statutory changes adopted during the e-vote in February 2025.

24.1.3. The revised voting rights for ex-officio members, as established during the e-vote in February 2025, shall take effect after the elections at the 2025 Ordinary General Assembly.

ADDENDUM I: PERMANENT COMMITTEES

ATU shall have the following Committees:

(1) Technical Committee The Technical Committee (the Committee) includes the Chairs of the following Committees: Athletes, Cadet, Coaches, Games, Kyorugi, Medical, Para Taekwondo, Poomsae, and Youth. The Chair is appointed separately. The Vice Chair is appointed from among the members. The Committee studies the organization and management of Taekwondo competitions; evaluates the safety and performance of equipment; considers ways to improve techniques used in Taekwondo competitions; analyzes issues related to the effective management of international referees; and may recommend amendments to WT.
(2) Advisory Committee The Advisory Committee consists of members aged over fifty (50) or experienced in Taekwondo activities for more than twenty (20) years. The Committee provides advice on significant matters related to the overall development of ATU or other specific issues.
(3) Athletes Committee The Athletes Committee represents athletes within the Taekwondo Movement and upholds the rights and responsibilities of the athletes in accordance with the ATU Athletes’ Declaration. The Committee shall engage with ATU’s Commissions, Committees, and Member National Associations, to help develop athlete-centered programs, and conduct educational training for and on behalf of athletes. The Committee shall be elected in accordance with a procedure determined by the Ad-hoc Election Committee established under Article 5.8.8 of the Statutes. Elected members shall have a four-year term. The Committee members shall elect from among themselves two Co-Chairs (one male and one female).
(4) Cadet Committee The Cadet Committee deals with the issues related to the practice, promotion, and development of Taekwondo among cadets. The Committee is also tasked with studying various affairs related to Cadet Taekwondo Competitions.
(5) Coaches Committee The Coaches Committee represents coaches within the Taekwondo Movement; upholds the rights and obligations of coaches; and studies and recommends methods and measures to improve Taekwondo competitions to ATU.

(6) Collegiate Committee

The Collegiate Committee deals with the issues related to the practice, promotion, and development of Taekwondo among collegians. The Committee is also tasked with studying various affairs related to Collegiate Taekwondo Competitions.

(7) Development and Taekwondo for All Committee

The Development Committee oversees overall ATU's development programs. The Committee focuses on capacity building of all levels of stakeholders; recommends standards for national and continental members and regional training centers; recommends guidelines for adoption under ATU's development programs including funding, equipment aid and participation aid, scholarship, etc.; monitors program implementations; considers how to improve and expand the practice of Taekwondo at all levels; and explores collaboration agreements with bodies which have financial means for sports.

(8) Education Committee

The Education Committee oversees certification courses and non-certification education programs in line with WT; studies and develops methods for cultivation of competent educators, administrators, athletes, coaches, referees, and general Taekwondo practitioners with an emphasis on online education; and supports WT programs and activities related to education.

(9) Finance Committee

The Finance Committee advises the GA, Council, President, and Secretary General on matters related to the ATU's financial management in order to safeguard continuity and strengthen the transparency and good governance of ATU and the Taekwondo Movement. The Auditor shall be the Chair and the Committee shall review and pre-approve financial information, including proposed budget, to be able to provide advice and recommendations with respect to making significant financial decisions. The Committee shall ensure that the CU has efficient and transparent budgeting and financial control processes, and that the financial policies and procedures approved by the Council are respected. The Committee shall review the qualifications of at least three (3) certified independent professional accounting firms, advise the President on the appointment or reappointment of one as the CU's external auditor, and monitor the effectiveness of WT's budgeting and financial functions within the continent. A summary of the process of vetting and selection of the external auditor shall be presented to the Council. The Committee shall review the CU's completed financial statements, which are prepared with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) and applicable law and review significant reporting judgments, before these are submitted to the Council and GA for approval.

(10) Games Committee

The Games Committee deals with studying the requirements for further improvements of the organization and management of competitions promoted by ATU or competitions delegated by WT.

(11) Integrity Committee

The Integrity Committee is the guardian of the ethical principles of the Taekwondo Movement as set out in the Statutes and the Integrity Code. A majority of its members shall be otherwise independent from ATU. The Committee conducts investigations into breaches of ethics and integrity, including safeguarding-related cases, submitted to it by ATU and, where necessary, makes recommendations for measures or sanctions to the Council. The Committee recommends amendments to the Integrity Code, and other integrity-based Rules except those related to anti-doping. The Committee is empowered to initiate integrity-related investigations based on its own determination.

(12) Juridical Committee

The Juridical Committee provides essential legal advice throughout the election process, ensuring adherence to the ATU Election Bylaws. It also drafts and amends the ATU Statutes, by-laws, and codes, and approves non-substantive changes to ATU Statutes and governance rules as per Statutes Article 21. Additionally, the Committee offers assessments and recommendations on complaints, investigations, disciplinary actions, and appeals in accordance with ATU's Disciplinary Actions and Appeals Code, and provides legal opinions to the Council or ATU on matters related to their respective areas of competence.

(13) Kyorugi Committee

The Kyorugi Committee reviews the organization and management of Kyorugi competitions and studies ways to improve the competitions and increase the consistent application of the WT Kyorugi Competition Rules; researching methods of effective management of and conducting training sessions for International Referees for competitions promoted by ATU.

(14) Marketing Committee

The Marketing Committee reviews and studies possible sources of financing and revenue for ATU. The Committee is to monitor the implementation of ATU's marketing and related programs and is also to seek means of maximizing the potential benefits to the Taekwondo Movement available through association with marketing partners.
